

Patrick McGaughey is a speaker, facilitator and business consultant for Chambers of Commerce, Business Associations and private business across the United States and Canada.

As a highly successful chamber of commerce executive, Pat is recognized as "America's Chamber Mentor" for his support of the chamber industry and it's executive. He is also recognized as one of the Top-5 Enter-Trainers in the United States for his ability to help people laugh and learn at the same time during his speaking presentations. As a consultant, Pat receives the highest possible evaluations serving as a planning facilitator for Chambers, Associations and private industry across the U.S.

Pat's professional background includes 15 years in broadcast sales and management and over 20 years as a highly successful chamber of commerce executive and industry consultant.

During his tenure as the chamber president in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, that chamber was acclaimed the most successful chamber of commerce in the five-state Pacific Northwest. Idaho's Governor also recognized Pat for turning the image of Idaho Tourism around 180 Degrees.

Pat is a graduate of the U.S. Chamber Institute for Organization Management at Southern Methodist University and he has been a member of the faculty since 2001 instructing at all five national Institute programs receiving the highest possible classroom evaluations.

Pat has been recommended to serve the Montana Equipment Dealers Association as a speaker by the Far West and Pacific Northwest Equipment Dealers for the work he has done serving those associations.